

– Saturday, December 10 – 6:00 p.m. – at Saint James Place

(formerly St. James Church)

– Main (Rt. 7) and Taconic – in downtown Great Barrington, Mass. –

Holiday Caroling

with the Period-Costumed

Victorian Singers

of Saint James Place, with Mr. Benjamin Luxon as Master of the Hall,

along with Mr. Charles Olegar, Master of the Choir

§

– Favourite Seasonal Carols from Dickensian England – sung by all (namely, full audience sing-along)...and some (namely, the Singers), including :

- Deck the halls □ God rest ye merry, Gentlemen □ Good King Wenceslas □ O Christmas Tree
- O come all ye faithful □ The Twelve Days of Christmas □ We wish you a Merry Christmas
- Here we come a-wassailing □ Sussex carol □ The First Nowell (both the standard and Victorian versions!)

.... amid other nineteenth century goodies, including:

Cheerful Holiday Poetry from the Victorian Era, recited by Mr. Luxon!

§

– free and open to all – an out of doors Holiday Stroll event